

Free and confidential chlamydia and gonorrhoea testing for 15 to 24-year-olds

Why test?

Chlamydia is known as the 'silent infection' because it often has no symptoms. Most people don't get symptoms when they have gonorrhoea either. The only way to know if you have a sexually transmitted infection (STI) is to get tested.

safer sex advice

information on local services

chlamydia screening

For more information
check out:
www.youngandfree.org.uk
or Call us on:
020 3815 5730

Your local chlamydia screening drop in is located at:

